

TERMS & CONDITIONS OF SALE:

- End-Use-Certificate (EUC) required for all lots.
- Viewing is by appointment only.
- Buyer is responsible for all costs associated with the dismantling of aircraft.
- Matting, modules, engine containers and counter weights are not included in the weight and sale.
- No parts removal by sale customer
- Completely sever the wing spar where the wing attaches and becomes a part of the fuselage.
- Completely sever the fuselage at the most critical point between the wing and tail assembly.
- Mutilate the attached fittings of the horizontal and vertical stabilizer.
- Completely destroy by shredding with Hammermill, shredder, incinerating, or otherwise rendering unusable and irreparable for its original intended purpose.
- All classified items, armament, explosives and munitions remaining on or about the aircraft are not included this sale and shall be reported to Government Liquidation Point of Contact.
- Military data plates will be completely destroyed.
- All distinctive markings will be destroyed or obliterated.
- Torch cutting will be permitted to downsize material to facilitate loading only, and only if permit is issued from the Host Installation, Fire Marshal. Buyer is responsible to obtain said permits. If permit is not issued or is revoked, purchaser must find other means to downsize material
- No person shall be granted access to property, unless escorted by GL personnel or their designee.
- Buyer is responsible for payment of Government Liquidation approved supervision crew during the removal period. Amount which is billable at $22.50 per hour, (subject to change) per person, billed directly to the customer.
- Aircraft residue must be removed within the timeframe set forth in the Terms and Conditions of Sale. The Site Manager shall have the discretionary authority to extend removal time periods as is deemed reasonable, or to accommodate any special circumstances.
- All debris resulting from the removal of this item must be cleaned up by the purchaser to the satisfaction of the Generating Activity.
- Certificate of destruction will be completed and signed by the purchaser to confirm that procedures outlined above have been completed.